

Seeking expertise on Public Financial Management (PFM) and Disaster Risk Reduction and Management (DRRM)

NPI would like to respond to two request for proposals from the Public Expenditure and Financial Accountability (PEFA) Secretariat and, separately, the International Organization for Migration.

For the first, on PFM, we seek an expert who can lead the research work on the role and impact of Public Financial Management in supporting fiscal transparency and public accountability; our expression of interest will be with respect to the sub-national level in Nepal (please access the RFP here:

https://www.pefa.org/sites/pefa/files/news/files/2021%20PEFA%20Research%20RFP%20%28Published%29_Nov2021.pdf

For the second, we seek up to two experts in the area of disaster risk reduction and management in Nepal who have also had experience working at sub-national level and on capacity building. Please see the RFP here:

<https://nepal.iom.int/sites/nepal/files/documents/CEOI%20Pariwartan.pdf>.

If you are interested and available, we'd love to hear from you in the process of putting together NPI's expression of interest. Please do respond by Nov. 23, at the latest.

Should you have any queries, please do not hesitate to get in touch by email at: info@nepalpolicyinstitute.org, or director@nepalpolicyinstitute.org.